DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claim 50 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Regarding to claim 50, which recites “A computer readable medium having encoded thereon program codes to be executed...”. Since, the specification, column 4, line 63 – column 5, line 11, discloses “ The digital video processing method is programmable by a computer. Codes and code segments constituting a computer program can be easily derived by a computer programmer in the art. Also, the program is stored in computer readable media and is read and executed by the computer, thereby embodying the digital video processing method. The media include magnetic recording media, optical recording media, and the like.

Also, the digital video searching method is programmable by a computer program. Codes and code segments constituting a computer program can be easily derived by a computer programmer in the art. Also, the program is stored in computer readable media and is readable and executable by the computer, thereby embodying the digital video searching method. The media include magnetic recording media, optical recording media, and the like. “. The term “and the like”, since is not clearly defined may include any non-statutory category and is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 49 and 51 are allowed.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
